LOCAL pride has at last determined the New York Yacht Club to build a boat to compete for the honor of racing against the Thistle for America's cup.

THE San Francisco "Daily Report" of the 20th instant, publishes an interview with T. S. Kay, of these islands, in which our affairs are presented in a light that is not flattering to Hawaii.

Mr. W. G. Irwin was assiduous in his attentions to the distinguished party that arrived to-day, per S. S.
Australia, and personally superintended their disposition in the several vehicles provided for their convenience.

DURING the G. A. R. services at the Islands."

THE JURY'S VERDICT.

The jury empanelled to enquire "That Akahi, of Wailua, Oahu, came to his death at Honolulu, May 28, 1887, on account of a quantity of corrugated iron falling and striking him on the head, and that there was negligence on his part and those with him while working." pictures will be accompanied by the lecturer with stories of his own of many of the people of Honolulu, who wish their children to share in the pleasure of his interesting talks

THE LATE CAPT. JOHN WORTH.

Captain John Worth who died at Hilo, Hawaii, on May 25, 1887, at the age of 84 years, belonged to an American family of prominence. He was cousin to General Worth of Mexican war fame, to whose memory a monument now stands in Madison Square, New York. Captain Worth was an uncle to Mr. E. A. Pierce, Secretary of the Hawaiian Legislature, who now has in his possession a very interesting embroidered family record, giving names, dates of birth, etc. This is the handiwork of a member of the family, and was executed in 1812, as marked on the record. Captain John Worth came to these islands somewhere about '47 or '48. From here he went to California, but returned again to the islands after a short absence, and located at Hilo, where for several years he acted as United States Consul. He was a man highly respected by the people of Hilo and by all in the country who knew him, as a man of upright character and sterling worth, in keeping with the name he bore. The deceased has been laid to rest in Homeland Cemetery, Hilo, after 84 years of sojourning on earth.

Missouri now has 5,106 miles of railroad, said to have cost $203,- 000,000.

ARRIVAL OF THE S. S. AUSTRALIA.

The S. S. Australia passed the foot of Fort street at 11:50 o'clock, this morning, to the minute. When she came abreast of the O. S. S. wharf, with her decks crowded with passengers, the band struck up a lively tune, and Mr. Williams on the bark Hercules, and Mr. Gonsalves on the wharf, took several instantaneous photographs of the vessel. She brought 163 passengers, 120 of whom were cabin passengers.
Four horse busses and wagonettes were in readiness at the wharf to convey the Masons to the Hawaiian Hotel. Crowds of people witnessed the arrival and the O. S. S. dock was a scene of liveliness. A number of Chinese steamer passengers came, but the delay of landing them in quarantine before the vessel docked was dispensed with. A number of Honolulu folks came home by the steamer as will be seen by the passenger list. A neatly printed passenger list, with the names of the officers on the first page, was given to the newspapers.

ABOUT MISSIONARIES.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Excuse me for referring to your missionary leader in yesterday's BULLETIN, but it seems to me that you have not fully defined the expression "missionary." Being an old resident I speak from experience and know that the natives call every virtuous young man "missionary," every man who refuses liquor "missionary," every honest man who does not steal amounts up to $70,- 000 "missionary," in short everything good "missionary."
This I should say speaks highly for the real "missionary" class, and they should therefore be held in high esteem by every respectable foreigner. Unfortunately this is not the case, as a large number of them speak with contempt of vir-tuous young men and call them "missionary." This anti-missionary feeling is a drawback to our social and political life and will always remain so till virtuous men are considered superior to unscrupulous and unprincipled men.
A KAMAHAHA.

Late Foreign News.

The Oceanic S. S. Australia arrived at noon to-day, bringing dates to the 23rd instant. We summarize the news as follows:—

Paris, May 19th.—Floquet, President of the Chamber of Deputies, advocates a pro tempore Ministry, drawn from the Budget Committee.
Henry Rochefort, in l'Intransi- gent denounces the Opportunist conspiracy to compel General Boulanger to retire from the Ministry, and warns the members of the Chamber of Deputies of the consequences of replacing Boulanger.

London, May 19th.—In the Commons this afternoon Healy raised a discussion regarding the Government's conduct in the matter of meetings in Ulster. Balfour disputed Healy's arguments, and contended that Earl Spencer, when Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, adopted a course similar to that pursued by the present Government.

THE PARNELLITES CAUGHT NAPPING
LAST NIGHT.

London, May 21.—Late in the evening the Parnellites were caught napping, by Willey, the Chairman remaining away for refreshments only ten minutes instead of the usual thirty, six amendments being struck off the paper because Parnellite proposers has not returned. The result of an important meeting to change the venue clause, which is to be withdawn and some other measure substituted for it. Unionist will render the Government more help than ever in pushing the Crimes bill to a speedy conclusion. The Stand- ard reports a rumor of serious dissensations in the ranks of the Irish party.

PLEASANTIES IN THE HOUSE.

The Commons was treated last night to a series of humorous episodes our Herodotus Herod. Labouchere convulsed the House by gravely rising to the movement of cloture when in all seriousness it was needed to put an end to the interminable discussion on the railway bill. The speaker promptly declined the invitation. Then there was a pleasing spectacle. Brad-laugh stated that the Ministerial bench was in close colloquy with the Tory Minister. Lord George Hamilton subsequently declared the Government would be glad of Bradlaugh's assistance. The question as to the details of the arrangements for the Commons' service at St-Margaret's Church to-morrow led to an extraordinary spectacle. Instantly the Speaker rose to reply and the House fell into solemn silence as the Right Hon. President described with great deliberation how he would take his seat at this table and then would go down to that door, thence through the lobby to the central lobby and on to Westminster Hall. A stranger might have imagined that some event of preternatural gravity was being dealt with. The illusion was somewhat shaken when Sir Henry Tyler inquired where members were to meet the ladies who were to assemble there, which the Speaker ungallantly hinted was a matter of minor detail. It was completely shattered when Tanner asked whether, if the weather were unsatisfactory an omnibus would be provided for the honorable members?

St. Petersburg, May 23.—The Nova Vremya publishes a letter signed by Gen. Tcherniaoff, advising Russia to give up the idea that the key of the Bosphorus is sought by the Government at Vienna, and turn all her thoughts to the Rhine and Oder, place her arch enemy between the hammer and anvil and profit by the present favorable circumstances to avenge herself for the work of the Berlin Congress.

Paris, May 23.—At the sale of the crown jewels, Tiffany & Co. of New York bought three of the famous Mazarin diamonds for 425,- 000 francs. The four others went to European buyers. The price realized from the sale amounts to 6,500,000 francs. There are only a few more lots to sell.

Brussels, May 23.—At a meeting of the Workingmen's party, held here yesterday, it was resolved to hold daily demonstrations in favor of universal suffrage and the granting of amnesty to persons now imprisoned for participation in the riots of 1886. A final meeting of delegates will be held to-morrow, when the question of a general strike will be decided.
